No – everything else should go to JJ as per the settlement agreement. Just this should go to Arlene.

Sheila,

Going forward, should all hard copies go to Arlene or just this particular submittal? The Settlement Agreement specifies that submissions should go to JJ. I'll alert the team of the new recipient for hard copies if this should apply globally.

Thanks,

Ilana

Ilana,

Please send the courtesy email to JJ, with a copy to me and Arlene Lilly (lilly.arlene@epa.gov).
You should send the hard copies to Arlene Lilly whose address is:

Arlene Lilly, Enforcement Specialist
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 5
Superfund Division - Enforcement & Compliance Assurance Branch
Enforcement Services Section 1, SE-5J
77 West Jackson Boulevard
Chicago, Illinois 60604-3590

Thanks and let me know if you have any further questions or issues you want to address before I leave for vacation.

Thanks, Sheila. I was planning on sending hard copies as well as a courtesy email. Paragraph 19.b. seems to require that we submit 3 copies of the Paragraph 72 materials as an “other submission” - which is why I was going to send it in hard copy. But if EPA does not need three hard copies of the insurance-related information and will accept an email transmittal, that would be helpful.

Thanks,

Ilana

Ilana,

Are you sending it by email? If yes, you can send it to JJ with a copy to me.

For your information, I will be out of the office from August 25th until September 3rd. During that time, if you need something, you can contact Randa Bishlawi. If there's something you need or want to discuss before I leave, I'll be in the office today and all day tomorrow.

Thanks,

Sheila,

I am going to handle the transmittal of the information required by Paragraph 72. Since I will be sending it on behalf of Statoil, do you prefer that I send it to you rather than directly to JJ?

Thanks,

Ilana
